T. H. Pfeiffer Esq.

Submit the following report for Friday the 19 day of November 1926.

While getting in conversation with several men who have been following up the case in side their opinion are the Prosecution has in no way hurted any of the defendants on side of the big woman, and they say she has been well schooled by her attorney her? as thus saying No-No-No. &c and owing to some of her answers not being clear &c her testimony I feel sure will have little if any bearing on the jury. further this one side tactics of Simpkins does not take with the jury this same sum of as I have heard it stated his circle actions in a trial of murder does not appeal to the public nor jury.

In looking the big woman in the eyes if any one was charged with murder as they had her they would swear the life of their mother away, and I know a person who is still charged with Coke or either heroine, "I feel safe to say if she was not charged with Narcotic she would never had taken the stand nor had the nerve to talk, just after

"Gergory" had spoken to me the Mirro Reporter being a young man about 5'-5" brown hair, thin face sharp prominent nose wear blue suit, tan shoes and hangs around in side of Court and at door was no hat, came out to me and said you are working with Gergory I just smiled and said no me; do you know any more jokes, he looked me over and went back in Court, looking as though he was wrong; he spoke to one of the Mirro Photo men that was the last I saw of him.

Party Gergory told me to notice, he came out at 4:25 PM and from all appearance & actions was greatly relieved to get out, did not wait to put his over coat on hurried out and went down Division St. towards R. R. Station.

"Just jot this down," Digits, will be acquited in not over half hour after they get the case.
